

Publication opportunities

The following arrangements have been made for the publication of research papers presented in the conference.

a) The selected few high quality papers will be reviewed at top International Indexed Journals in collaboration with co-organizer of the conference, California State University.

b) Collaboration made with Journal of Public Management & Social Policy, USA for bringing out a special Issue for the selected papers presented in the conference and meeting their required standards. (<http://digitalscholarship.tsu.edu/jpmisp/>)

c) Collaboration made with Financial Planning Research Journal for publishing selected research papers meeting their standards. The following website may be referred.

<https://www.griffith.edu.au/business-government/griffith-business-school/departments/department-accounting-finance-economics/research/financial-planning-research-journal>

d) Selected papers will be published in a book of reputed publisher with ISBN