2018

NOVEMBER 2-3, 2018, MATHURA, INDIA

Respected Sir/Madam,

Subject- Invitation for “Recent advancements in Neurophysiology & Neuropharmacology-2018 (RANN-2018)”

It is our great privilege to announce that National symposium on ‘Recent advancements in Neurophysiology & Neuropharmacology-2018 (RANN-2018)’ would be organised in the campus of GLA University, Mathura during November 2-3, 2018.

The Institute of Pharmaceutical Research, GLA University, Mathura is stepping into thirteen year of its existence. It offers education to students from Diploma to Ph. D. programmes approved by Pharmacy Council of India.

The basic objective of the symposium is to discuss, deliberate, decipher and disseminate issues related to the challenges involved in the advancements in neurophysiology and neuropharmacology and also it would offer an opportunity to develop networking for future collaboration aimed at advancements in Neurosciences.

An announcement and other details regarding the events of symposium are attached with this e-mail. We shall be grateful if you kindly arrange to circulate this with relevant documents to all concerned for its wider circulation and support.

With best wishes and regards
